Engagement principles

These questions relate to the principles section of the draft policy

Principles of engagement

The draft policy lists the engagement principles as follows:

Meaningful: We provide our community with genuine opportunities to participate in decisions that affect them.

Transparent: We will explain the level of influence the community can have on the outcome and detail what the community can and can't influence and why. We will describe how the decision will be made and by who and share the outcomes of engagement processes with our community.

Respectful: We acknowledge and value the expertise, perspective and needs of the community and communicate with them at key milestones.

Inclusive: We consider our diverse community members when designing our communications and engagement activities. We provide information in easy-to-understand and accessible formats and provide support to those who need assistance to take part in our activities.

Informed: We provide relevant and easy-to-understand information to support engagement and time to review the information.

03. Is there anything important we have missed? Required

04. What would these principles look like in practice? Required
